

PMP EXAM PREPARATION WORKSHOP

LEADERS FROM ALBERTA FOR THE WORLD

EXECUTIVE EDUCATION

Executive Education of Alberta School of Business in its first ever submission gained ground in Financial Times Ranking for world's top Executive Education programs. We are ranked as one of best in the world, No. 5 in the Canada and 66 worldwide for its open enrollment programs, and No. 4 in the Canada and 77 worldwide for custom programs.

We are the largest and best executive education source in western Canada

As School's professional development provider, we serve clients across all industries and in the public sector and offer over 75 programs and forums serving over 6,000 registrants per year. We focus on providing education solutions that enable today's leaders in government, crown corporations, public safety, publicly traded companies, and privately held organizations to lead change and increase organizational performance.

Interthink Consulting is one of the foremost consulting firms in the field of organizational project management and strategy. Since 1990, we have been working with customers to enable them to enhance their strategy process and improve the delivery of mission-critical projects.

Our customers range across industries and disciplines. We have worked with some of the leading public and private sector organizations in Canada and around the world to help to define, develop and implement leading-edge project management capabilities.

Our services are supported and reinforced through our investment in the research and benchmarking of project management practices. Our organizational project management baseline study has been used to assess more than 650 organizations from around the world. We also contributed extensively to the Value of Project Management research project; this landmark study, sponsored by the Project Management Institute, was the largest investigation of organizational practices ever conducted in the field of project management.

The result is an unparalleled level of expertise and insight into how project management really works – and should work – in organizations. Our advice is informed by research, and our training programs are informed by experience. Senior leaders are provided with guidance, education and expertise that is unparalleled in depth, breadth and insight.
